

THE HISTORY PROJECT "STORIES OF OUR GRANDMOTHERS" A History Research Writing Prize

Objective:

Research the personal life style of a woman exhibited in the Permanent Exhibit "ALL OUR GRANDMOTHERS: BUILDING SAN DIEGO - THE UNTOLD STORY" now at the Women's History Museum and Educational Center in Golden Hill.

Write a personal "first person point of view" narrative that describes a "day in the life" of one of the women in the "All Our Grandmothers" exhibit.

Submit your APPLICATION to the Women's History Museum by July 31, 2009. Written narratives will be due by September 15, 2009.

Win one of the 20 cash prizes for the chosen narratives.

Winning entries will be recorded in a professional audio studio for inclusion as the audio component in the museum's permanent exhibit.

Offered to all High School Students in San Diego County.

PROCESS:

- Sign in as a participant at the museum
- Identify your target person
- Do the research
- Write the narrative
- Submit your narrative
- Record winning entries

NEW Application Deadline:
July 31, 2009

Please contact the museum to register your interest in this project.

